Oregon Peach Bitters

About eighteen years ago I received a hurt in my back from a pile of lumber falling on me, and ever since had been troubled with weak kidneys more or less, and the last year very much. Through the recommendation of Henry Keene, I bought a bottle of H. Klau's Oregon Peach Bitters and before I had taken half the bottle I found a great relief from it. I believe it to be a splendid remedy for the kidneys, and heartily recommend it for the same. J. H. PORTER, Astoria, January 12, 1888.

The Terrible Work of Caban Bandits.

THAT EASTERN SNOW STORM. Still Raging with Violent Fury and Making Things as Miserable as Possible.

UTICA, N. Y. March 13.—The storm has abated, but an extraordinary fall of snow completely blocks travel. The fast mail and the Atlantic express, due at New York early this morning, are at the depot. No trains arrived to-day and none expected.

NEW YORK, March 13.—There has been only a partial resumption of traffic in this city. The elevated railway trains are running only at intervals wholly inadequate for the requirements. The wind is blowing furiously and the snow is drifting badly, being piled in many places six to nine feet high.

PITTSBURG, March 13.—Business on the Pennsylvania railway between this city and Philadelphia is completely paralyzed. No trains arrived from the east since last night. Everything is blockaded with snow. All the trains are snow bound and there is little prospect of their getting out for twenty-four hours.

NEW YORK, March 13.—The stock exchange adjourned at noon to-day, and the loan market at 2:30 p. m. It is reported that several persons perished in the city last night. Communication with points south of New York is entirely cut off. There are no service cars running. The East river is frozen hard this morning, and many Brooklynites walked across it to New York.

NEW YORK, Mar. 13.—The storm which commenced to moderate about 1 o'clock this morning, broke out with increasing fury a few hours later and it is playing sad havoc on every side.

CHICAGO, 11 a. m.—Communication with the east are entirely cut off. All the wires are down.

Cuban Robber Depredations.

KEY WEST, FLORIDA, March 13.—Crime is still rampant in Cuba, and disastrous fires, supposed to be the work of bandits, are occurring on many of the sugar plantations. In the province of Matanzas, the loss is considerable. A large amount of stock has been burned alive, besides sugar sheds, houses, etc. It will cripple the sugar crop to a considerable extent.

Whole Family Poisoned.

MASON CITY, IOWA, Mar. 13.—On Saturday evening as the family of H. L. Brown, consisting of self, wife, six children and hired man, were seated at supper, they were all taken violently sick and in less than an hour Mr. Brown and one child were dead. The others are all very low and it is thought they cannot recover. It is believed they were poisoned by some vile assassin. The matter is being investigated.

Safe Robbery.

PHOENIX, Ala., March 13.—The safe belonging to the Mariopa & Phoenix railroad company, was blown open last night and about $1,200 appropriated. No clew to the robbers.

High Priced Horse.

SANTA ROSA, Cal., March 13.—The celebrated trotting stallion, "Antico," was sold yesterday by the Stock Breeding Association to a Kentuckian for $20,000.

Held to Answer Without Bail.

SAN FRANCISCO, Mar. 13.—Thos. N. Bateman, the private soldier who shot and killed Sergeant Soper at Presidio last July, had a preliminary examination in the police court this morning and was held for trial before the superior court without bail.

Probable Ending of the Strike.

CHICAGO, March 12.—It is reported that the strike will be at an end before dusk to-morrow. Members of the committee would neither admit it nor deny that a conference was in progress. Subsequently one of them guardedly admitted that a conference might be in progress, and added the brotherhood had decided to modify its demand so as to leave nothing at issue except a proposition that the classification system, as originally submitted, should be adopted for one year on trial.

Victory for the Strikers.

CHICAGO, March 12.—The hearing in the case of the Burlington against the Wabash for refusing to handle "Q" cars, was concluded this afternoon. Judge Gresham after the arguments by the counsel, said upon the face of the argument he would be compelled to dismiss the proceedings, but before filing the former decision, he would look up the laws and decisions touching the subject. The members of the Brotherhood of Engineers in attendance were greatly elated over the judge's remarks, while the counsel and officials of the Burlington appeared correspondingly depressed.

Express Train Wrecked.

DENVER, March 9.—It is reported that the west-bound express train on the Union Pacific, due here at 7 this morning, was wrecked near Laselle, 75 miles east of here at 4 o'clock this morning by a broken rail. Several passengers were killed and wounded. A special train left here at 10 o'clock carrying physicians, stretchers, etc. As the telegraph line is controlled by the railroad company it is impossible to get particulars.

P. McDaniel as chairman and J. W. Strange, secretary.

Civil Suit.

Lunn & Brown vs. Amelia Riley, suit to recover money, was started in Justice O'Donald's court yesterday morning and continued until 3 p. m., to-day, when it was postponed until to-morrow afternoon at 1 o'clock. This is one of the cases growing out of the failure of the Savage estate.

SWEEPING STORMS IN THE EAST.

Trains Stopped, Brooklyn Bridge Blockaded, Travel Impeded Everywhere.

NEW YORK, March 12.—The hardest snow storm of the year is raging.

At 8 o'clock there was a foot or over on the ground. High winds caused drifts which in the upper part of the city were three and four feet high. Traffic is also suspended. Thousands of passengers are blocked on the elevated roads. The horse cars are entirely unable to move. People who left up town by the elevated roads, were unable to get further than Eighth street by that road. Many of the more venturesome descended to the street by ladders and walked the rest of the way down town. People in suburban towns found it almost impossible to reach the city, so severe were the drifts.

The Brooklyn bridge is blocked and the ferry boats run only at intervals. The trains have been stopped on the elevated roads. The snow is very fine and almost blinds the people, who are compelled to be out of doors. At 7:10 this morning two trains collided at the Seventy-sixth street station of the elevated road. The rear car was partly sandwiched into the forward car, which, it appears, was standing at the depot. The engineer of the rear engine was killed and the locomotive literally smashed to pieces.

POUGHKEEPSIE, March 12.—

About 8 o'clock this morning in a blinding snow storm the Atlantic express, bound south on the Hudson river railway, ran into the rear of another Atlantic express at Dobb's Ferry, demolishing the cars. Four persons are known to have been badly injured. Both tracks are obstructed. The snow is between twelve and eighteen inches deep.

TROY, N. Y., March 12.—A snow storm of great severity has been raging here since 8 o'clock last night. All travel is badly delayed.

NEW HAVEN, Conn., March 12.—The storm in this vicinity is very bad. All roads are blockaded.

NEWBURGH, N. Y., March 12.—The severest snow storm of the winter is prevailing throughout this vicinity to-day. Already a foot of snow has fallen since 9 o'clock last night, and it is drifting. All trains on the railways are much delayed. The streets in the city are deserted.

WASHINGTON, March 12.—One of the most violent storms this city has seen for years, almost approaching a blizzard, has been in progress for the past twenty-four hours. Street car travel was suspended, telegraph wires tangled, and railroad trains from all directions belated. Fears are entertained that the storm has done great damage to the railways between Philadelphia and New York and vicinity.

ALBANY, N. Y., March 12.—Snow began falling yesterday, and at midnight to-night it still continues. The thermometer registers 4 above zero, and the wind is blowing at the rate of thirty miles an hour. The streets are deserted and in many cases impassable. On Lark street the occupants of a sleigh were rescued from a drift twenty-two feet in depth. Railroad travel has been abandoned in this vicinity. Reports state that the storm rages with unprecedented severity.

They Get Back to London.

LONDON, March 12.—Sullivan and Mitchell arrived in London this morning. Sullivan left for Liverpool a short time afterwards. Neither of the fighters showed much sign of his punishment. Mitchell's friends are very jubilant over the result of the fight.

A Humane Man Dead.

NEW YORK, March 12.—Henry Bergh founder and president of the society for the prevention of cruelty to animals, died this morning.
